THE CORO CHRONICLES

POWERED BY CORO
HEALTH

We're back with another powerful and heartwarming episode of The Coro Chronicles! This time, we're diving even deeper into the incredible ways music and faith-based care are transforming the lives of those living with dementia.

Joining us is Chaplain Elisa Bosley, whose deep passion for elder care has led her on an extraordinary journey. She'll share inspiring, real-life stories of how FaithFirst and therapeutic music can unlock precious memories, foster deep connections, and bring comfort to residents, families, and caregivers alike.

♥ Just like our first episode, this podcast is all about connection. We created The Coro Chronicles to be a space where we uplift, inspire, and share the power of music and faith.
